

Saint Michael and All Angels Parish Church, Bramcote

Children, Young People and Family Life Minister

Who we are

We are the Anglican Parish Church of Bramcote, a suburb to the west of Nottingham. We sit in the low church tradition (open evangelical), where the heart of our life together is the gift of our relationship with Jesus Christ, our Saviour. In all that we do, we seek to share this gift with the local community and the wider world and to serve our local community. St Michael's Church is part of the Diocese of Southwell and Nottingham; the diocesan plan is for 'growing disciples, wider, younger and deeper'.

Person Specification

What we offer:

Under God, we seek to serve and look out for one another, both individually and corporately, and live out our vision of an intergenerational and welcoming church. Our homegroups offer a warm welcome to those on the staff team.

The right person for the job

You are:

- A committed disciple of Jesus shown in everyday life

Someone who will teach about Jesus, by modelling what it's like to know him and by fresh ways of exploring what the Christian Gospel means in every-day life.

- Passionate about growing, teaching and reaching children and families

Someone who seeks to sow seeds of faith and Christian discipleship in children, so that they can grow into committed adult Christian disciples, and to help adults on their faith journey.

Who regards children and young people as key members of the Church. This includes giving children a voice, helping them to form their identity as members of the community.

- Someone with a pastoral heart

Who relates well to children, families and young people and who nurtures good mental health in others.

Who models correct safeguarding practice.

- Both a leader and a team player

Someone who will value, encourage and enthuse their team of helpers and will support the team in growing together spiritually

- Creative and imaginative

Someone who is a person of vision and who will think outside the box with respect to suitable activities, venue and timing.

Who will connect with young people in church and in the surrounding community in new and innovative ways.
