From time to time we take photographs or record videos during our church activities which we use solely to illustrate or advertise those activities on our web-site, in newsletters, in publicity and during church services. Outside of these activities, we never share such media, nor do we provide specific information regarding children appearing in such media. They are used exclusively for church purposes.

Would you be happy for your child to appear in such media (photographs and videos)?

I do/do not give permission for Saint Michaels to use photos or videos of my child solely for the purposes detailed above.

(Please strike through whichever does not apply)
